

Bachelor of Science (Degree with Honours) and/or Postgraduate Diploma in Science

Application for Admission in 2009

This application form must be submitted to the department where you wish to be considered for selection (not to the Faculty of Science Office).

All applicants must complete this application form to be considered for either the Bachelor of Science (Degree with Honours) or Postgraduate Diploma in Science in 2009. The only exception is applicants for the Bachelor of Science (Degree with Honours) in Psychology who must apply on-line via the Student Information System: <https://sis.unimelb.edu.au/>

International applicants who were not studying at the University of Melbourne in 2008 (i.e. international applicants who have completed or are completing an undergraduate science program at an institution other than the University of Melbourne) must also apply separately to the International Admissions Office. On-line applications for international applicants and a downloadable international application form (pdf) are available at the following URL:

<http://www.futurestudents.unimelb.edu.au/int/iug/iugapply.html>

ALL APPLICANTS: Before submitting your application to the relevant department, please:

1. Read the information pertaining to the Bachelor of Science (Degree with Honours): <http://www.science.unimelb.edu.au/honours/> or the Postgraduate Diploma in Science: <http://www.science.unimelb.edu.au/pgrad/index.php> Additional information on Fourth Year programs can also be found on the websites of each of the teaching departments of the Faculty of Science.
2. Liaise with the relevant departmental course coordinators to discuss potential supervisors and other departmental application requirements. Applicants for formal combined Honours programs (i.e. conducted across two departments) must liaise with both departments before submitting their applications.
3. Complete the relevant sections of this application, and submit the application along with the required documentation as detailed below, to the relevant department. If you wish to apply to more than one department, you must submit a separate application form and a certified copy of complete documentation to each department.

APPROVALS: All applications require the approval of the Head of Department (or nominee) and the Faculty of Science.

CLOSING DATES: Applications should normally be submitted to the department by 28 November 2008 for commencement in semester 1 and by 30 June 2009 for commencement in semester 2. Some departments may accept late applications. All enquiries regarding late applications should be directed towards the relevant department.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION to accompany this application form

Applicants who have completed their degree (or who are currently completing their degree) at the University of Melbourne are not required to supply transcripts of their studies at the University of Melbourne. These applicants must however, provide documentation as indicated below, for any qualifications attempted at tertiary institutions other than the University of Melbourne.

Applicants from institutions other than the University of Melbourne:

- Must provide an original or certified copy of their official transcript on official university stationery which contains that university's logo, indicating all subjects and results in all years of study for each qualification completed or attempted, along with an explanation of that university's grading system. Applicants are advised that documents other than an original or certified copy of their official transcript, including faxed documents, documents obtained via the internet or documents that indicate results for one year only, will not be accepted.
- Must ensure that if their transcript does not include a statement that they have successfully completed their degree, they will provide an original or certified copy of an official letter from their institution explicitly indicating this achievement.
- Who are currently completing their degree (i.e. have not yet completed) should submit this application by the due date with a transcript indicating their results to date. Once their final results are available, they should submit a transcript indicating their final results, along with an official letter explicitly indicating that they have successfully completed their degree (if this is not stated on the transcript) to the relevant department.

CERTIFICATION OF DOCUMENTS

A certified copy is a photocopy of the original document which has the signature and official stamp of one of the following persons, indicating that they have sighted the original document: Barrister or Solicitor, Police Officer in Charge of Station, Pharmacist, Doctor (MBBS), Dentist, Principal of School, Justice of the Peace or Clerk of Court. The signature and stamp must appear on every page. A photocopy or facsimile of a certified copy is unacceptable.

Photocopies of academic transcripts from another institution that have been certified by an officer of that institution are not acceptable (unless that person is also qualified to certify documents, as described in the preceding paragraph).

Please note that if any of the above documents do not include your current name, i.e. the name under which you have applied for the course, you will need to provide certified copies of legal evidence of your change of name (e.g. Marriage Certificate)
